From the Editor . . .

Hi Fellow Golfers!

The start of another year and with it the hot weather has arrived!

It has been a quiet start to the year with not a lot to write about. Even the Ladies have been housebound, (maybe their husbands have been home on holidays) with no trips to play at other courses.

The Autumn Classic Golf Week is fast approaching and the organizing Committee are doing a great job in coordinating the program. Don't forget to get your entries in as the Monday is already booked out and the other events are filling fast.

Any items of interest, achievements, stories and news etc. please drop them in the putter box on the bar or send me an e-mail at ryeates@senet.com.au. Until next month, good golfing.

Australia Day

Saturday January 26th Celebrate Australia Day at the EGC

Pair up with a mate and play in the 2 man Ambrose.

After your game, celebrate the day with a drink and one of Heather's B-B-Q hamburgers or a sausage, both served with a salad and available at the conclusion of your round.

Get your teams together for the Premier
Events of the Echunga Golf Club

DO YOU PLAY IN THE THURSDAY COMP?

On Thursday 28th Feb this comp is to be replaced by the "MEN'S SENIORS DAY", a competition for those over 60.

Other arrangements are currently being considered for those who normally play and are under 60 so watch the Notice Board for Details.

IF YOU ARE IN THE SENIOR CATEGORY, why not get your entry in QUICKLY as the field is limited and positions are filling fast.

AUTUMN CLASSIC

A feature event of our first "Golf Week"... Morning and afternoon options available, loads of prizes.

This event is very popular with people from other clubs so register early to avoid disappointment.

Thanks Everyone

Thank you to the members and Staff of the Echunga Golf Club for their concern and prompt attention on 27th December, 2012 when I literally fell off the perch (chair), after only one stubby. I can report that after a comfortable ride in a bloodbox to the RAH Emergency Department the doctors have put my problem down to an inner ear infection. After spending 3 plus hours there they told me, believe it or not, that I do have a heart and brain (not necessarily functioning!) Special thanks to Bob B for stopping me from hitting the floor and I'm sorry Ron M for giving you such a scare. Thanks again to everyone.

From the President

Ground Staff

It was with great pleasure that we have been able to appoint Joel Haslett full time with the club. Until now he has been doing his apprenticeship which he completed in December. Well done, Joel.

Club House Staff

The club house is having a good year with green fees, etc. Well done to Heather and her team who do a great job.

Survey

The survey for 2013 to members is being prepared and we expect that it will be able to distribute these shortly. The survey has become an increasingly important way for members opinions to be heard.

Autumn Classic

To be held on Sunday March 3th.
 Entry forms are available in the club house.

MAN KILLED ON GOLF COURSE..

A foursome of men waiting at the men's tee while a fourball of ladies were hitting from the ladies' tee.

The ladies were taking their time. When the final lady was ready to hit her ball, she hacked it 10 feet.

Then she went over and missed it completely.

Then she hacked it another ten feet and finally hacked it another five feet.

She looked up at the patiently waiting men and said apologetically,

"I guess all those f?#%*!g lessons I took over the winter didn't help."

One of the men immediately responded, "Well, there you have it. You should have taken golf lessons instead!"

He never even had a chance to duck. He was 43.....

THE "51103" CLUB

The 51103 is a social golf club for Echunga Members.

We will be visiting different courses one Sunday a month, running our own competition and handicapping cards.

"Morning Sex"

She was standing in the kitchen, preparing our usual soft-boiled eggs and toast for breakfast, wearing only the 'T' shirt that she normally slept in.

As I walked in, almost awake, she turned to me and said softly,

"You've got to make love to me this very moment!"

My eyes lit up and I thought, "I am either still dreaming or this is going to be my lucky day!"

Not wanting to lose the moment, I embraced her and then gave it my all; right there on the kitchen table.

Afterwards she said, "Thanks," and returned to the stove, her T-shirt still around her neck.

Happy, but a little puzzled, I asked, "What was that all about?"

She explained, "The egg timer's broken."

OVER THE ROAD

Seeding of the fairways should be underway by the time you read this and we hope that it will be finished without any interruption from the weather. Once the seeding is completed another working bee will be called to remove some more stone and rocks. Keep your eyes on the notice board for the date.

THE "GOLDEN EMMY AWARD" for December Remember all that rain we had in December which caused the course to be closed as the fairways were too wet and had rivers running down each side.

The game was hard to play for some as balls were being lost in the mud and water but some players did find it easy or made miracle shots.

My spies have reported this shot by Colin "EMMY" Golding.

It was on the 2nd fairway, Emmy drove into the triangle and somehow (with a bit of luck) got back on the fairway with his second shot.

He addressed his ball (motionlessly like a statue for several moments) for his third shot with the intention of clearing the hazard and land on the green so that he could putt out for par.

Coming out of his frozen stance Colin played his third shot but misjudged the mud under his ball and hit high and short.... straight into the water hazard which just happened to be overfull of water on this particular wet and rainy day.

Colin waded up to the hazard to find his ball sitting up on some weeds in the middle of the fast flowing water hazard but also below the water line.

EMMY pondered over what he should do. Should he drop out, take a penalty shot and go for a double bogey or worse?

No, not our Colin. Having survived the State Bank fiasco and thought he could do anything now so in he waded (he tried walking on top) to play his next shot.

With words of encouragement from his partners "Ya Mad", "Get a boat", "Watch out for ducks" Colin lined up for his shot.

Bracing himself against the strong flowing current Emmy moved into his shot. With a big splash and shower of water up popped the ball onto the green and after two short bounces rolled into the hole for an EASY par.

Colin then WALKED out over the water.

Editors note: The 2nd then is now our 13th

Taken from the January 1993 Putter

5 Years ago

Construction of the new 13th green is well underway, however unfortunately the weather has not been ideal for the germination of the seed. To complicate the issue further, the seed that has germinated has ended up as 'Dinner for the Ducks'. Michael is now estimating that the new green will not be ready until the end of February.

Heart Warming Lawyer's Tale?

One afternoon a lawyer was riding in his limousine when he saw two men along the road-side eating grass.

Disturbed, he ordered his driver to stop and got out to investigate.

He asked one man, "Why are you eating grass?"

"We don't have any money for food," the poor man replied.

"We have to eat grass."

"Well, then, you can come with me to my house and I'll feed you," the lawyer said.

"But sir, I have a wife and two children with me. They are over there, under that tree."

"Bring them along," the lawyer replied.

Turning to the other poor man he stated, "You may come with us, also."

The second man, in a pitiful voice, then said, "But sir, I also have a wife and SIX children with me!"

"Bring them all as well," the lawyer answered.

They all entered the car, which was no easy task, even for a car as large as the limousine.

Once under way, one of the poor fellows turned to the lawyer and said, "Sir, you are too kind."

"Thank you for taking all of us with you."

The lawyer replied, "Glad to do it. You'll really love my place."

The grass is almost a foot high!!"

Come on ...you really didn't think there was such a thing as a heart-warming lawyer story... did you???
