From the Editor . . .

Hi Fellow Golfers!

Another month gone and plenty of golf being played. Not many big comps happening, but our Autumn Classic is not far away.

The Autumn Classic Golf Week Organizing Committee are doing a great job in coordinating the program, but other than the Women's Open Day on the Monday which is fully booked out, the response for the Wednesday mixed 4BBB comp, Thursday Men's Senior Stableford and Sunday's Classic is disappointing.

So please, if you havent registered already, get on line or fill out the entry form in the clubhouse and REGISTER NOW. There are great prizes to be won and you will enjoy a great day of golf.

Any items of interest, achievements, stories and news etc. please drop them in the putter box on the bar or send me an e-mail at ryeates@senet.com.au. Until next month, good golfing.

Captain's Report

Distance Measuring Devices

I was asked recently about the use of Distance Measuring Devices (DMD's) such as GPS units and Laser Rangefinders in club competitions at our course. The use of these devices is prohibited by the rules of golf, unless a local rule is in place.

I can confirm that the Match Committee has allowed the use of DMD's for a number of years but there has been an oversight around adding this to the local rules, which will be rectified when new card stock is ordered. In the meantime all members can continue to use these devices during club competitions at Echunga, but it is worth noting that should you play in a competition at another course you should check the local rules to see if DMD's can be used.

Permanent Tee Bookings

Once again the permanent tee booking system is not working as well as it should. The key reason for this is that members are not removing their name from the sheet when they are unable to play, and if they are this is often done far too late. Members are reminded that should they be unable to play they should remove their names as soon as possible, ideally a week in advance.

Without removing names it makes it exceedingly difficult for other members to book a spot as well as for the bar staff to place bookings in for members who ring up. Going forward this will be more actively monitored and repeat offenders will lose their permanent bookings.

I would also like to remind members that playing in the competition without a booking is also not appropriate. Whilst you may think that there is sufficient space to play adding extra groups slows down the entire field and can cause delays in the second late morning groups being able to play on time.

Tee times won't be swapping over. This was never more than a passing idea which seems to have grown into something everyone assumes will be happening, but is certainly nothing I ever said was planned. If the permanent tee times happen again next summer we will revisit this and look at setting it for a specific date so that everyone knows it is happening well in advance.

New Members

Each month we have new members join our club. To formally welcome them Eric Marsh has volunteered to introduce new members to the club. This will mean introductions to other members, the club processes and of course ensuring they have someone to play with, I would ask all members to help Eric in this endeavour

Survey

The 2013 Survey is being sent out with your subscriptions renewals. The survey has developed into an important way to support club planning and we encourage all members to spend a few moments to provide the Committee with your views and ideas on how the course is presented and how the club is operating.

Again, this year there is a dozen golf balls on offer for one lucky member whose name is drawn from a list of those who respond before March 31st 2013.

Autumn Classic

The Classic is on March 3rd as most know and again this year we have decided to run the event in two divisions. This is to allow more members and visitors to play. We have two divisions starting at 7.30am and at 12.30pm. There will be one overall winner and each division will have its own prize list and meal after the game.

We have a terrific pool of prizes and the day promises to be busy and full.

We have kept the costs down to the same as last year and expect that two fields of 80 will enable an enjoyable event for everyone. I must congratulate the grounds staff, grounds committee and volunteers who have made such a mighty effort at presenting the course so brilliantly leading up to the classic.

Sponsorship

In order to continue to develop and grow the club, sponsorship is an increasingly important means of promoting the club and provides value to members and the public.

We have some exciting developments in the area of sponsorship and would love to have the opportunity to talk with you and develop the type of packages which can be mutually beneficial.

Subscriptions

Thanks to David Manning and Michael Clark, who have put in a big effort in getting membership renewal advices prepared. These are now available, please collect yours from the Clubhouse.

Grounds Report

On the 14th January, John and the green keepers spiked the greens.

One of the most important parts of golf course maintenance is aeration.

By forcing the turf to grow through regular fertilization, we start to build up organic matter at the surface which becomes thatch. This is an ideal place for disease to grow and the best way to deal with thatch is by coring and spiking (even though as golfers we hate this practice). Other advantages are reduced compaction and better root growth.

Junior News

Billy Cawthorne has recently been announced a member of the South Australian Junior Golf squad to represent the state in the Australian Junior Amateur Championships and Interstate team events in Western Australia in April.

He is one of six high achieving boys to earn this opportunity and has done so as an Echunga player. Billy's current handicap is 2 and along the way he has played some outstanding golf in State Country teams, various Vardon events and SA Junior Championships.

He is very pleased to have achieved this goal which at this stage has opened the door to a number of other opportunities to play and develop to his full potential.

There are inevitable costs and sacrifices associated with Junior athletes showing such promise and demands upon his family and friends to accommodate those demands.

Billy is not alone in demonstrating a remarkable skill to focus and improve and Brad Spaven, another of our Development Academy members has recently got his handicap down to 0 which is an awesome achievement and only the second Echunga member to have achieved that standard to the best of my knowledge.

Congratulations to both of these young men.

The state team consists of, debutants Billy Cawthorne (Echunga), Joshua Hayes (McCracken), Colin Coleman (Grange), and Patric Kroschel (Royal Adelaide) who will join experienced team mates Jordan Bishop (Kooyonga) and Captain Anthony Murdaca (Grange).

The Australian Boys' Interstate Matches will be played from 15 - 18 April 2013 at the Bunbury GC - Bunbury, WA.

Five big boy babies.

A Redneck went to the hospital as his wife was having a baby.

Upon arriving he sits down, and the nurse says, "Congratulations, your wife has had quins", 5 big baby boys.

The Redneck says, "I'm not surprised, I have a penis on me like a chimney." The nurse replies, "You might want to consider getting it cleaned, they're all black."

Flashback!

On the Course...and around the Clubhouse...

5 Years ago

Some interesting happenings on the course

Who was the player who was hitting 11 off the tee on the third on Saturday 2/2/08? Five balls out of bounds! Curse stroke rounds when you have developed a hook, hey Jeff? (Reuter).

Stroke rounds always seem to bring the best out of us with another player on Saturday 2/2/08 finding out that the shaft in his putter isn't as strong as it looks. After all, being one over the card for the back nine playing 18 and then four putt would make anybody angry, wooden it, John?(Westerholm).

Hole in One

Congratulations to Chris Barker on his Hole-in-One on the 7th Hole on January 12th! Chris has just joined us from Strathalbyn, all the more reason to stay with us all year at Echunga!

Taken from the January 2008 Putter

The Norman Dynasty continues!

John and Lisa are proud to announce the arrival of their son Lachlan Philip Norman.

Born 12.26am on 21/1/2013, weighing 7lb 5oz. Both Mum and Bubs are doing really well.

Congratulations from all at the EGC

Adult Fairy Tale

Once upon a time there lived a King.
The King had a beautiful daughter, The PRINCESS..

But there was a problem. Everything the princess touched would melt.

No matter what; Metal, Wood, Stone, anything she touched would melt.

Because of this, men were afraid of her. Nobody would dare marry her.

The King despaired. What could he do to help his daughter?

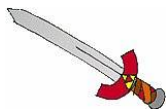

He consulted his wizards and magicians. One wizard told the King, 'If your daughter touches one thing that does not melt in her hands, she will be cured.'

The King was overjoyed and came up with a plan.

The next day, he held a competition. Any man that could bring his daughter an object that would not melt would marry her and inherit the King's wealth...

THREE YOUNG PRINCES TOOK UP THE CHALLENGE.

The first brought a sword of the finest steel.

But alas, when the Princess touched it, it melted.
The prince went away sadly.

The second prince brought diamonds.

He thought diamonds are the hardest substance in the world and would not melt.

But alas, once the Princess touched them, they melted.

He too was sent away disappointed.

The third prince approached. He told the Princess, 'Put your hand in my pocket and feel what is in there.'

The Princess did as she was told, though she turned red.

She felt something hard. She held it in her hand.
And it did not melt!!!

The King was overjoyed. Everybody in the kingdom was overjoyed.

And so the third Prince married the Princess and they both lived happily ever after.

Question: What was in the Prince's pants?

Answer: See page 10

Members Feedback

If members have concerns about the course or the issues relating to the club could they put their concerns in writing and forward by mail or email to the committee via the secretary.

Casual conversations on and off the course can often be misinterpreted and not recalled correctly when being repeated and when done during play can lead to slow play.

Thanking you, Kym Wenham, (sec)

Brushing up on the Rules of Golf.

Members often ask, why don't we have "preferred lies" or "winter rules"?

I found this article which explains the situation in "Golf Rules Illustrated"

Before a committee adopts a Local Rule permitting "preferred lies" or "winter rules", the following facts should be considered.

1. Such a Local Rule conflicts with the Rules of Golf and the fundamental principal of playing the ball as it lies.
2. "Winter Rules" are sometimes adopted under the guise of protecting the course when, in fact, the practical effect is just the opposite – they permit moving the ball to the best turf, from which divots are then taken to injure the course further.
3. "Preferred Lies" or "Winter Rules" tend generally to lower scores and handicaps, thus penalising the players in competition with players whose scores for handicaps are made under the Rules of Golf.
4. Extended use or indiscriminate use of "preferred lies" or "winter rules" will place players at a disadvantage when competing at a course where the ball must be played as it lies.

Rules of Golf

Finding Nearest Point of Relief.

- Through the green. Taking the stance that would have been taken and using the club that would have been used, if the problem area had not existed, the player should swing the club, and determine the nearest point, (no nearer the hole and not in a hazard or on a putting green), from where the ball could be struck without interference to swing or stance by the problem area. The point where the ball would lie in that swing is the nearest point of relief, and the one club length measurement can be measured from that point with any club, usually the driver.
- Wrong green. Same as "through the green", excepting, stance is not required to be off the green.

Measuring Relief Dropping Area.

- One and two club length drops can be measured with the club of choice.
- One club length measures are taken from the "nearest point of relief"
- Two club lengths measures from the problem point itself.
