Clubhouse Restrictions Relaxed

From June 1st SA will move to Stage 2 of the pathways to a Covid Safe Community.

For Echunga this means:

- Up to 24 persons will be allowed inside the clubhouse to sit, eat and enjoy a drink.
- 4 people can sit at the single table in the sprig bar.
- 20 people can sit in groups of 4 at the five tables in the course bar
- Up to 25 people can sit outside the clubhouse, provided they observe the 1.5m social distancing rule.
- People must observe the 4m2 per person rule
- Members must respect the 1.5m social distancing obligations when queuing, entering and exiting the Club.
- Patrons in all areas must be seated at this stage. Family and friends for example are permitted to sit together at tables without social distancing, however the back of any chair at any table must be at least 1.5m from the back of the chair at another table;
- Patrons will be permitted to consume alcohol without a meal, but they must remain seated.
- Bar service will be permitted, however drinks must be consumed away from the bar and while seated.
- Separate toilets have been allocated to the inside and outside areas. Members and guests are asked to comply with these allocations.
- Current restrictive local rules remain in place.

From the Editor . . .

Hi Fellow Golfers! Well, at long last we can get back toward normality, but with still some restrictions.

Stroke and Par rounds are back in the program as well as Nearest the Pins and of course food and a drinks in the clubrooms after a game of golf.

Well done to the Executive Committee on their handling of these tough times and how they have managed to slowly get us back on the course and now in the clubrooms once again.

The Ground Staff has been keeping the course in great shape for us and the drainage work they have done over the recent years is certainly making a difference.

As we know our Superintendant is a keen golfer and it was great to see him out playing on the course, getting a players prospective of the conditions which are not always visible when driving around the course on a mower. Well done Joel!

Our Captain, Ben Slack has been busy rescheduling the program to enable all of the major rounds to be squeezed into a shortened season and more details are listed here and the full revised program is on the web site.

We have a new sponsor, Adelaide Hills Accounting and Financial Planning who has joined us and we welcome them on board.

Till next month, good golfing.

If you have any news items, stories, achievements etc. please drop them in the putter box on the bar or e-mail me at randryeates@gmail.com.

The Captains v Vice Captains Trophy

This event is run annually as a warm up to the start of the Pennant Season.

Unfortunately, due to the Corona virus the Pennant season has been abandoned, but 21 members did front up this year for this annual event

Captains v Vice Captains results

G'day all

The Captains vs. Vice Captains Showdown has been run and won! (Pending inquiry)

And it was the Vice Captains team who won! On a countback! So let's all congratulate Randy and his team and share in their joy, and bask in their glory!! (Assuming the result doesn't get overturned)

After what was a very wet and muddy Saturday, it was great to see everyone showed up keen to play, even Zac, who came as a spare because, usually you'd expect to have someone pull out late....

The weather turned out to be ok, not super hot, but not too windy or wet either. The course was a bit soft in places, but not as soft as anyone who blames the course for their performance.... :)

Match results were as follows...

In the first group both matches were squared! (D. I. Parrott v Pat, and The Don v The T Guy). What a bloody waste of time! This group was rarely sighted, and there is some speculation as to whether or not they actually played.... Maybe next year you can go over to the 19th and finish your matches!... I can't say much more about them as they teed off before I got there, and then they went home before I finished... They are a myth to me, (although they are prime suspects in an ongoing investigation) (Pat Buying in particular)....

The second group were also rarely sighted (apart from those people that saw plenty of them), but by all accounts they had good matches, all played in good spirits, (as were all the matches on the day). The Captain's team drew first blood with a win to Wazza! over his twin brother, and co 2019 Pennant Player of the Year, Andy Amberg... Then the VC's hit back with a hard fought win to 'Billy the Kidd' over retail giant D Jones.

In the 3rd group, the Captain's men; P Anderson and E March, took on VC rookies; J McDonald and L Cooper..... And it was a slogging match with no prisoners taken, as Les Cooper pummeled the March man all day before landing the knockout punch and leaving Eric wandering deliriously somewhere in the forest near the 14th fairway. The VC's had their nose in front, but it was short lived, because 1 hole later the Captain's man, Peter 'eggs' Anderson brought swift vengeance upon the VC's by dispatching John McDonald 4/3 and once again leaving the scoreboard tied after 6 matches.

In the 4th group it was a simple case of the 'cream' of the Captain's 'team' really did rise to the top.... for a while anyway.... Myself and the Z-man, (also known as the 'Cream Team' were in scintillating form, flying out the gates and both building commanding leads over the VC's, Viv Smith and Bruce Agnew.... Celebrations commenced on the 12th hole with both of us 5 up and cruising to victory..... However both of the VC's men hung in there and put up a huge fight.... Viv, who was 6 down after 10 holes fought his way back to be all square with 1 to play!, and Bruce who was 5 down with 5 to play fought on to be 1 down with 1 to play.... But the 'Cream Team' dug deep and won both matches on the 18th to give the Captain's team 2 wins and a seemingly unbeatable 2 match lead. The celebrations resumed in the Captain's Camp, as Zelko and I were quite sure that our illustrious leader and Nathan surely couldn't somehow find a way to stuff it up.....

But we were wrong because Ben and Nathan were both de-pantied and given a hard golfing lesson by their more mature opponents; VC commander Randy Jones, and SANFL Sturt legend, Richard Hill were far too good for the Captain and his number 2..... By all accounts the Captain was up to his eyeballs in Macclesfield moonshine, celebrating from before hole 1 until long after hole 18. And so the match score became 5 all, and it went to a countback which was won by the Vice Captain's team. There was some finger pointing after the game amongst the more highly fancies Captain's team, some suggesting it was Ben and Nathan's hopeless performances that cost them the match, but others are giving credit to the fighting performances from Viv Smith and Bruce Agnew, who's efforts made all the difference in the countback at the end of the day.

The Nearest to the Pin was won by nobody because Zelko didn't suggest having an NTP until we were halfway through the round.

Thanks to all who came and played in what was a very enjoyable day, and congratulations again to the VC team (assuming the result withstands the scrutinies of the MRP)

There is an official MRP inquiry underway to determine who is responsible for the leaving of a half full beer sitting on the grassy knoll next to the 12th green. If anyone has any information regarding this incident please come forward. You may remain anonymous. Once we have concluded our investigations and found out who the offender was, disciplinary may be forthcoming and the final results may be brought into questioning. Watch this space...

That's all from me

Disclaimer; The content of this report may in many parts be complete bull shit, and may not represent the views of anyone present at the game, nor that of the author.

Hi Jamie,

Further information on the grassy knoll beer. In front of the Pennant Warriors there was a group of green fee players of I believe 5 players sounding like 40 players and at least 2 slabs of beer. I'm surprised there was only half a beer left on the course and not 27kg of projected stomach contents and 3 to 5 passed out golfers.

Cheers, Warren "Wazza" Ryan

A Dangerous Game

We have all played in matches where our opponent could not be considered our best friend. This, however, should never be the case when we are playing the Capt versus Vice matches where our opponents are considered to be team "MATES". Not so! I have the bruise to prove it, in a place I dare not show the public. I was bending over and placing my ball in the middle of the 10th fairway, after cleaning it of a huge clod of mud, when I experienced an excruciating shot of pain with its epicentre located in a place I should not mention. My team "MATE", Eric, who was about 10 metres behind me and at about a 45 degree angle had played a full blooded shot and shanked it, hitting me fair in the ring!! There was some laughter (mostly from the 11th tee) and some moaning (mostly from me). I have had better experiences in my time. The miracle is that I went on to win my match 4 and 3 giving a new meaning to "getting a shot in the arse"....or was that arm? Thank you Eric!

VOLUNTEERS' REPORT

We are back with appropriate distancing.

Many thanks to Tony Guy for the pipes and the mat and in fact for all the things that he has donated.

The word is that he has a secret demolition yard. We have extended the steps on the left hand side of the 2nd tee block, laid a few pipes and dug out some drains.

Two mornings have been taken up with pruning tree branches that were too low over the second fairway cut and in areas of the rough.

Contrary to popular belief, this is not being done to please some players or to make it easier to get a swing. It is to allow the grounds staff to gain access for slashing and mowing.

Two large fallen branches were cut up and removed.

Cole is maintaining the carts and washing them every week and welcome back to John.

We have planted 13 native bushes on both sides of the path to the 2nd tee block and plans are underway to landscape and plant around the 3rd tee block.

There is a place for you at our next gourmet bush lunch so meet us at the clubhouse at 9 am on any Tuesday.

Who is that with a neck and no head, two arms and no hands?

What is it?

Answer next month

Last Month's Teaser

At a children's party, 10 kids had juice, 8 kids had cake, and 6 kids had juice and cake.

How many kids were there at the party?

Answer:

Twelve kids. Six kids had juice and cake, leaving two out of the cake eaters that didn't have juice. As there were ten juicers, there must be twelve kids in total.

Never underestimate the elderly!

Your smile for today!!

The old lady handed her bank card to a bank teller and said, "I would like to withdraw $500."

The female teller told her,

"For withdrawals less than $5,000, please use the ATM."

The old lady then asked, "Why?"

The teller irritably told her,

"These are rules. Please leave if there is no other matter. There is a queue behind you."

She then returned the card to the old lady.

The old lady remained silent... but then she returned the card to the teller and said,

"Please help me withdraw all the money I have."

The teller was astonished when she checked the account balance. She nodded her head, leaned down and said to the old lady,

"My apologies Granny, you have $3.5 million in your account and our bank does not have so much cash currently. Could you make an appointment and come again tomorrow?"

The old lady then asked, "How much am I able to withdraw now?"

The teller told her, "Any amount up to $300,000"

The old lady then told the teller that she wanted to withdraw $300,000 from her account.

The teller did so quickly and handed it to the old lady respectfully.

The old lady kept $500 in her bag and asked the teller to deposit the balance of $299,500 back into her account.

Don't be difficult with old people... we can outwit the young and dumb.

The Irish Bic Lighter

Bob and Ralph were fishing on the Irish shoreline when Bob pulled out a cigar. Finding he had no matches, he asked Ralph for a light.

'Ya, Shure, I tink I haff a lighter,' Ralph replied, and then reaching into his tackle box, he pulled out a Bic lighter 10 inches long.

'My God, man!' exclaimed Bob, taking the huge Bic Lighter in his hands.

'Where'd yew git dat monster?'

'Well,' replied Ralph,
'I got it from my Genie.'

'You haff a Genie?' Bob asked.

'Ya, Shure. It's right here in my tackle box,' says Ralph.

'Could I see him?'

Ralph opens his tackle box and sure enough, out pops the Genie.

Addressing the Genie, Bob says,

'Hey dere! I'm a good pal of your master. Will you grant me one wish?'

'Yes, I will,' says the Genie.

So Bob asks the Genie for a million bucks.

The Genie disappears back into the tackle box leaving Bob sitting there waiting for his million bucks.

Shortly, the Irish sky darkens and is filled with the sound of a million ducks.. flying directly overhead.

Over the roar of the million ducks Bob yells at Ralph, 'What the hell? I asked for a million bucks, not a million ducks!'

Ralph answers,

'Ya, I forgot to tell yew dat Genie is hard of hearing.

Do yew really tink I asked for a 10 inch Bic?'

NEWS:

Dr. Anthony Fauci, Director of the U.S. National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases told the President: "This morning, 3 Brazilians were killed by Covid-19."

Trump's face went egg-shell white with shock. The blood drained from his face and to everyone's amazement he collapsed on the floor.

Minutes passed and to everyone's relief President Trump got up shakily and then sat back on his chair.

His staff was nothing less than stunned at this display of emotion from their President, nervously watching as he sits, head in hands, waiting for him to faint again.

Finally, the President looks up and with a shaky quivering voice asks Dr Fauci, "How many people is a brazillion?"

Flashback!

On the Course...and around the club...

20 Years ago

If you're a beer drinker you might like to sign the petition about rising beer prices on the signing in table.

There are some great opportunities to play in "open" events at a lot of other courses.

Keep your eye on the notice board for application forms.

It's been suggested that we invent a "new" Echunga Golf shoe modeled on the knee high rubber boot, just add cleats to the bottom. I'm sure there's a big market at the moment.

Les Hall Memorial Trophy

To be played on June 3rd.

Les was a popular member of the club who enjoyed many happy rounds on the old 9.

Les was one of those members who enjoyed the company of other members and usually stayed till the announcement of the results at the end of the day.

A Heavy smoker, Les sadly died of Lung Cancer.

Legacy Day

17th June

A $100 donation is made to Legacy which Entitles the top 2 scores of the day to play in the Legacy Day Comp at Glenelg in September.

Red Cross Day

The Irish Millionaire

Mick, from Dublin, appeared on 'Who Wants to Be a Millionaire' and towards the end of the program had already won 500,000 Euros.

"You've done very well so far," said Chris Tarrant, the show's presenter, "but for a million Euros you've only got one life-line left, phone a friend. Everything is riding on this question. Will you go for it?"

"Sure," said Mick. "I'll have a go!"

"Which of the following birds does NOT build its own nest?"

- a) Sparrow
- b) Thrush,
- c) Magpie,
- d) Cuckoo?"

"I haven't got a clue." said Mick,

"So I'll use my last lifeline and phone my friend Paddy back home in Dublin."

Mick called up his mate, and told him the circumstances and repeated the question to him.

"Fookin hell, Mick!" cried Paddy. "Dat's simple, it's a cuckoo."

"Are you sure?"

"I'm fookin sure."

Mick hung up the phone and told Chris, "I'll go with cuckoo as my answer."

"Is that your final answer?" asked Chris.

"Dat it is."

There was a long, long pause and then the presenter screamed, "Cuckoo is the correct answer! Mick, you've won 1 million euros!"

The next night, Mick invited Paddy to their local pub to buy him a drink.

"Tell me, Paddy? How in Heaven's name did you know it was da Cuckoo that doesn't build its own nest?"

"Because, ya damn fool, he lives in a Fookin clock!"
