From the Editor . . .

Hi Fellow Golfers! Well, it's the start of a new season with Opening Day this Saturday. Pennants are starting soon with details in this month's issue.

Our Volunteer Group needs more helpers. Can you spare a few hours on alternate Tuesdays, to assist them in their work around the course? They are currently doing a great job of painting the outside of the Clubrooms. There are many tasks that need attending to around the course. Maybe you have a trade or an area of expertise, in which case your help would be much appreciated. See the details within.

The Committee has recently contacted all the Clubs with which we have Reciprocal Rights, to renew our arrangement. Details of several changes are listed in this issue.

If you have any news items, stories, achievements etc. please drop them in the putter box on the bar or e-mail me at ryeates@senet.com.au.

Until next month, good golfing.

Pennants

Southern Golf Pennant season is approaching soon with Rnd 1 on the 24th May, 2015.

Your club requires your commitment to ensure we field our strongest teams in the 5 grades that we will submit.

A1, A2, B1, B3 and C1 teams will be required, so enter your name via the Club website by using the Pennant page link or call me directly and I can help you.

In the new Club Program we have a Pennant practice event scheduled for Sunday, 10th May and we aim to have new Pennant shirts and caps available for players.

So get busy, sharpen up your game and submit your name for Pennant golf.

Kind Regards,

Andrew Keogh

VOLUNTEERS GROUP NEWS

Echunga Golf Club has an active volunteers group, which primarily exists to help out around the course with any tidy up work that assists green-keeping staff.

Work includes assisting in the maintenance and upkeep of the course.

Taskings include things such as;

Clearing fallen limbs and large bark pieces after strong winds.

Painting of the yardage markers on the tee blocks.

Construction of walling on some of the tee blocks.

Assisting when trees are pruned and carting away the timber.

Painting around the clubhouse (currently being done)

Trimming the edges around the tee blocks.

The Volunteer's Group gets together usually on every second Tuesday and would welcome more of our members coming out to help with the various small taskings that we are engaged in.

So if you have some free time why not come along and join in the fun.

Contact either Alan Horsfall, Jeff Reuter or Don Beames for more information.

"Bad Dog! Dig up my lawn again and I'll have you neutered!"

Visit to the IRS Office

An old man is met by his attorney, and is told he is going to be audited.

He rides to the IRS office with his attorney, and when he gets there, he begins to talk with the IRS agent.

"I bet $2,000 I can bite my own eye!"

The IRS agent agrees to the bet, believing it an impossible task.

The old man laughs, pulls out his glass eye, and bites it.

The IRS agent is dumbfounded.

The old man bets $3,000 he can bite his other eye.

The IRS agent knows there's no way possible to do this, so he once more agrees.

The old man cackles, pulls out his dentures, and bites his eye. Then the old man finally wagers,

"I bet $20,000 I can stand on the far side of your desk, pee over the desk, and get it into your wastebasket, without missing a single drop."

The agent knows he won't be able to, so once more he agrees. The old man indeed misses, peeing all over the desk, and on the paperwork.

The IRS agent jumps for joy, but then notices the attorney over in the corner moaning.

"Are you all right?" asks the agent.

"No! On the way over here, he bet me $400,000 he could pee on your desk and you'd be happy about it!"

Three old timers at the retirement home were complaining about growing old. The first one says, "I wake up at 7:00 AM and try for a half hour to take a poop." The second one says, "Oh yeah? I spend an hour trying to pee." The third one says, "I take a nice poop at 7:00 AM and about 7:30 AM take a nice pee." The other two guys look at him and ask, "What are you complaining about?" The third man explains, "I don't wake up till 8:30 AM."

Out and About Mannum

On Wednesday 11th March, a small Echunga contingent headed to Mannum for their inaugural Pretty in Pink Day to raise money for breast cancer research. The 4BBB game started off in fine form with pink fairy wings, bright wigs and tutus with the prospect of port and champagne at the 4th/13th. Needless to say there was a variety of scores at the conclusion of the event amongst the 28 players. Pamm Leach saw partner Christine Fensom win a NTP and three raffle prizes! I had a birdie on the 18th, but Ann Morton had a great back 9 to help us win the day with 43, on a countback to locals Athelae and Sandra, followed by Mannum/Strath pair Hilary and Di with 42, on a countback to locals Leanne and Mary. There was a feeling of strong camaraderie with our Southern Zone friends and we all had a really nice day.

March 19th – Flagstaff Hill - 3BBB

In a month when we finally expected cooler mornings, it was strange to go out to play hearing that the overnight minimum had been 26 degrees! Our team (Val, a Flagstaff Hill player and I), set off for the distant sixth tee block in what seemed like midday heat! We made a good start with three points on the first hole, then Val hit a beautiful drive over the water on the seventh, but that was our peak for the day. Nevertheless, we enjoyed the company and the course was in beautiful condition with lots of roll and very fast greens. There were 15 clubs playing and the winning team came from Mount Osmond and North Adelaide with 51 points, a team from Grange came second with 50 points.

March 27th – Mt Barker/Hahndorf – Stableford

This day seemed as if it was mid- winter – it was freezing at the start of play and players were delighted to taste the Vili's mini quiches which were being handed out as we registered. We fielded three players – Libby, Mary and Wendy. The course was in very good condition, but balls which left the fairway ran for a very long way on the hard, bare dirt (as I discovered only too frequently). Spotters were at their normal places on the second (water hole par 3) and on the sixth – they were kept busy, but one of them admitted (at Pennants later) that she had collected over a dozen good (lost) balls while waiting for groups!! The story of the day was the player who refused to take a penalty when her tee shot from the 7th landed on the little island just before the 6th green – instead she elected to take off shoes and socks and waded to the island to hit the ball – she received a couple of balls for her pains!!

We had a beautiful lunch of chicken salad and learnt that there were 109 players from 20 clubs. A grade was won by Jenny Butcher (Mt Osmond) 34 points; B grade and the Veterans' Prize were won by Margo Canino (our unassuming playing partner from West Lakes) with 36 points and C grade was won to our delight by Mary with the best score of the day, 40 points - she reported that it was one of those magical days when nothing went wrong!

April 2nd – The Stirling – Canadian Foursomes

Sue T and I paired up for this event on another bitterly cold morning. The course was in all its autumn glory with the foliage ranging from golden to deep red, but the dry slopes took advantage of the unwary golfer! The field of 46 moved very well and we were in quite early to enjoy our chicken and salad lunch and the generous raffle. The gross winners of the day were Penny Matthews and Jenny Butcher from Mt Osmond with 78; the net winners were locals with 66 and 67 (Sue and I came in with 67.5).

Playing to your Handicap...

It has been reported to the Committee that several players are not playing to their full potential. These players during their round become aware that if they keep playing well they are going to lose a stroke or two from their handicap and suddenly easy putts are missed or balls "accidentally" go out of bounds.

The Committee does not approve of this and will consider taking action if it continues.

BEWARE of wayward hits when driving east along Dolman Road. A poor truck driver had his front windscreen destroyed by a ball off the first tee. How UNLUCKY can you be.???

Wedding Drama

On their way to get married, a young Catholic couple is involved in a fatal car accident.

The couple found themselves sitting outside the Pearly Gates waiting for St. Peter to process them into Heaven.

While waiting, they began to wonder: Could they possibly get married in Heaven?

When St. Peter showed up, they asked him.

St. Peter said, "I don't know. This is the first time anyone has asked. Let me go find out," and he left. The couple sat and waited, and waited.

Two months passed and the couple were still waiting. While waiting, they began to wonder what would happen if it didn't work out; could you get a divorce in heaven?

After yet another month, St. Peter finally returned, looking somewhat bedraggled. "Yes," he informed the couple, "You can get married in Heaven." "Great!" said the couple.

"But we were just wondering, what if things don't work out? Could we also get a divorce in Heaven?" St. Peter, red-faced with anger, slammed his clipboard onto the ground.

"What's wrong?" asked the frightened couple.

"OH, COME ON!," St. Peter shouted,

"It took me three months to find a priest up here! Do you have any idea how long it'll take me to find a lawyer?"
